death. Surgeons are enjoined to a strict and industrion performance of their duties in regard to the cure of the eick and disabled. Generals commanding corps are to balt frequently, and roll-calls will be had at every halt, as well as at the commencement and end of every march. All Adjutants are to make out a list of absentees and all stragglers are to be examined before the officers of the regiment. If the excuse is not deemed sufficient, the word "straggler" is to be entered after the name of the offender, and his pay stopped for the period of absence.

Field officers are vested with the same powers a a regimental court-martial. In cases of urgent necounty, a ticket of have may be furnished a soldier for a given time by the company officers, who shall always go provided with tickets for such contingency

In such case of absence, the musket, haversach and knapsack, shall be borne by the soldiers' con rules. When an examination of stragglers shall show any neglect of duty on the part of any company officer, the name of the offending officer shall ported for dismissal or court-martial.

On a march, the Provost shall throw out cavalr, to the flanks and rear to arrest and return all strag elers to their regiments. All officers, of whatever grade or regiment, are vested with authority to driv forward all stragglers to their regiments, and resistsace is at the risk of death.

All houses on the line of march are to be occupie. by the Provost Guard, and protected against injury, and marauding and rolbery are made punishable with death, the sentence of which is "to be executed promptly, and in the most public manner," I regret to say that the property of the Hon. F. P. Blair, Sr., at Silver Spring, suffered very seriously from strugglers following the army on its march two or three days ago.

WHAT THE RUSSIAN MINISTER THINKS OF OU ARMY,
M. Stoeckl, the Russian Minister, after watching our troops as they marched past on their way Rockville the other night, said that we had the fine t army in the world, but that no soldier could do his duty who carried so much loggage on his person. Twice as much, he said, as a Russian soldier was allowed to carry, and far more awkwardly and inconveniently placed than his load.

KNAPSACKS SENT BACK.

Sixty wagon loads of knapsacks were sent back from the front last night. This forms a fitting corollary to the Russian Minister's criticism.

The Treasury Department has received and dis bursed, up to to-day, $1 notes to the amount of $192,000, $2 notes to the amount of $208,000, and postage currency to the amount of $287,300. Those who blame the Secretary of the Treasury for tardi-

The bills are manufactured under the direction of the Post-Office Department, which has failed to furbish on the average more than half the meager quantity it promised. The demand is however, far from satisfied as was proved by the length of the crowd this morning, which stretched from the desk down the street, an for some distance down the sidewalk.

AN ERROR CORRECTED. Several journals in speculating touching the consequences of the capture of Washington have fallen into a serious error. Foreign Ministers are accredited by their Governments to the person of Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, and must follow his person. They cannot recognize, as these journals intimate, as a de facto Govennment, Rehels who seize Washington, since it is not the city but President Lincoln that they are accredited to.

It is not likely that any representatives of a foreign Power here would take upon himself the respon ability of recognizing a Confederacy as a de facto Government, which his own Government has thus far refused to recognize.
